Rectal Bleeding

Should I be worried??

Rectal bleeding is a common phenomenon in all ages. Common symptoms such as piles, anal fissures and polyps may lead to colorectal cancer. Therefore, careful evaluation is the key to treat rectal bleeding.

Join us and learn about the various causes and treatments of rectal bleeding. Enroll now at 9278 9187 / 9223 6268 or email enquiry@westpointhospital.com for registration.
